Plains of Africa—April 6-20, 2011

Explore the pure scenic vistas and magnificent wildlife of Kenya, discovering the truly unique culture and experiences that make it one of the most popular African countries to visit.

Samburu Reserve, home to some of the country's most exotic wildlife including the "Big 5". Enjoy a lecture on the Samburu—an ethnic group related to the Masai—delves into its unique culture and traditions.

Stay at the world-famous Mt. Kenya Safari Club in the shadow of Mt. Kenya.

Masai Mara is an extension of the great Serengeti Plain, considered by many to be the most magnificent game viewing spot in all of Kenya. You'll also enjoy a traditional bush dinner featuring a Masai dance performance.

You'll also get to visit the farmhouse of Karen Blixen, author of the book "Out of Africa". Experience local wildlife firsthand and take advantage of an opportunity to fee the endangered Rothschild giraffes from a raised platform at the Giraffe Sanctuary.

Visit Amboseli National Park, famous for its open plans where lions and elephants roam and the breathtaking snow-capped Mt. Kilimanjaro dominates the landscape.

Spirit of Washington, D.C.—June 24-28, 2010

Begin your first day in Washington D.C. with a presentation on the Smithsonian Institution's impressive collections, followed by a drive along Pennsylvania Avenue, the grand boulevard that connects the White House and Capitol Hill, where you'll view the impressive

U.S. Capitol. You'll also pay tribute to John F. Kennedy at the eternal flame that protects his gravesite. Enjoy a narrated city tour of Washington D.C. to view the venerable monuments to Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln. See the city's newest memorial, dedicated to veterans of World War II. Have some time to explore two of the Smithsonian museums.

What is AAA Sojourns?

AAA Travel has more than 60 years of experience in helping Americans vacation better. Six years ago, we created the AAA Sojourns line of tours and cruises to transform that industry expertise into opportunities for AAA Members like you to take vacations that reflect your interests.

Be in the center of the action. Fun festivals, high-energy sports tournaments and enriching cultural happenings are a

AAA Sojourns specialty. The Portland Rose Festival is a world-class event where you can travel with us.

Enjoy fine wines, our Florence and Tuscany Wine Experience and our Paris and Provence Wine Experience are just two tours where you'll taste the best vintages of these regions, as well as visit with the experts who bottle them.

AAA Sojourns is committed to sustainable travel.

Our commitment to sustainability is underscored by our participation in the World Heritage Alliance for Sustainable Tourism. This respected organization works to promote and preserve the communities surrounding UNESCO World Heritage sites through responsible travel.

Book and deposit your Sojourns Tour or Escorted cruise by February 28, 2010.
