Spirit of Washington, D.C.

June 24-28, 2010

If Washington D.C. has been a place you have been wanting to visit, here is the tour that will capture the capital for you. Take a drive along Pennsylvania Avenue, the grand boulevard that connects the White House and Capitol Hill, where you'll view the impressive U.S. Capitol. Visit the Congress and learn about its vast collection of more than 134 million items as well as the spectacular architecture. Enjoy a city tour of Washington D.C. to view the Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln Monuments. You'll also have a chance to walk through the city's newest memorial, dedicated to veterans of World War II. Enjoy a full day of exploring the new National Museum of American Indian, and the National Museum of American History. A Smithsonian historian will tell you the intimate story of the nation's capital, featuring a look back at the ideas and practical issues that underlay the city's establishment.

Shades of Ireland

November 2-11, 2010

Ireland—known as the Emerald Isle for its “forty shades of green” is filled with rolling hills, warm people, stately castles and rollicking fun. On this tour, you'll visit Dublin, Kilkenny, Killarney, and Limerick. Journey to historic Blarney Castle where you can take the opportunity to kiss the famous Blarney Stone. Journey to the stunning, 700-foot-high cliffs of Moher for awe-inspiring view of the mighty Atlantic and the Aran Islands. End your trip with an overnight stay on the grounds of Cabra Castle where you'll end your fabulous trip during your farewell dinner. This tour is booking up fast, so call to reserve your space today!

Europe Christmas Markets

December 2-10, 2010

What a wonderful way to start the holiday season than to experience a traditional Christmas season in Europe. Visit the various Christmas markets; enjoy an evening with a private choir concert performed in a 850-year-old church. You'll also travel to the picturesque valley of the Black Forest. What a great way to get your Christmas shopping done in Europe and to come back home with truly unique gifts.
